Providing supper for 700 people is a formidable task, but one that was accomplished in a short time by members of the Elks Lodge and Royal Purple at last Saturday's Minor Hockey banquet. The young fellows shown in the photo are loading up with barbequed beef and all the trimmings.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS MINOR HOCKEY BANQUET

About 700 people were present in the Centennial Civic Centre Saturday night for a very successful Minor Hockey banquet and awards night.

The evening, featuring several great speakers, was the first-ever to attempt a complete minor hockey wrap-up of all leagues and players. In the past the season ended with team or league getogethers on an individual basis Players, their parents and guest practically filled the playing surface of the Centennial Arena at tables set up for the occasion. The Elks Club catered for the supper which featured barbequed beef.

M. C. was Mr. Orest Haydey who introduced the head table. Mayor Lloyd Maclean brought greetings from the town. He complimented the Minor Hockey Association on the fine effort put forth in presenting the evening's program and also commented on the smooth operation of the minor leagues during the past season.

Guest speakers during the evening included Doug Messier, a former pro and now coach of the Edmonton Monarchs; Frank Roggeveen, also a former pro and a member of the Rebels; Sam Belcourt, playing coach of the Rebels; and Clare Drake, coach of the U. of A. Golden Bears.

A special award of team jackets from the Town of Drayton Valley were presented to members of Burrows Motors Challeng-

Spill Control Tests Planned May 18, 19

The Pembina Area Pollution Control Co-operative Committee will conduct the previously announced oil spill control tests on May 18th and 19th, 1971. The tests will be conducted on the North Saskatchewan River at the bridge where Highway 57 crosses the North Saskatchewan, approximately five miles south of Drayton Valley.

The tests, which are to be a joint effort by the oil industry operators in the Pembina Area, are designed to evaluate pollution control equipment (such as booms, oil skimmers, absorbents etc.), techniques, manpower utilization and transportation and communication facilities under actual oil spill conditions. Necessary authorities have been obtained from affected governmental agencies, who together with oil company and oilfield supply personnel, will witness the planned activities.

The tests will involve pumping limited amounts of crude oil into the North Saskatchewan River near Drayton Valley and activating the various control procedures developed by the co-operative committee.

The Pembina Area Pollution Control Co-operative Committee operates within the terms of reference of the provincial oil spill contingency plan.

Speaking Finals At Duffield

Parkland 4-H Public Speaking Finals were held in the Duffield School Auditorium on April 17th with over 100 in attendance. Judges for the evening were Mr. A. F. Olson, Principal of Stony Plain Elementary School; Mr. R. Walker, Stanger and Mr. R. Andrews from the Department of Youth.

Top award went to Miss Barbara Smith of Duffield Clothing Club who received a trophy donated by Stony Plain Seed Cleaning Association and presented by Mr. R. Andrews. Second place winner was Miss Cathy Lent of Duffield Clothing Club who received a trophy donated and presented by Mr. Peter Bakker. Those two girls went on to the Regional Finals held in Spruce Grove April 23.

Miss Linda Piskunowicz of Tomahawk Beef Club was third runner up and Glen Johnson of Moon Lake Beef Club received honorable mention.

Other speakers were: Dale Milne of Duffield Beef Club, Sonya Slemko of Lobstick Beef Club, Rose Miller of Spruce Grove Multi Club, Sandra Strass of Lake Mere Beef Club, Peggy Luniw of Lobstick Beef Club, Terry Bentley of Sundance Garden Club, David Secord of Spruce Grove Multi Club. These contestants were presented with mementos donated by Decker's Insurance, Stony Plain.

Mrs. C. R. Wood presented her trophy for best secretary for 1970 to the secretary of Tomhawk Beef Club.

Chairmen for the evening were Barbara Hickie of Duffield Beef Club and Sharon Bignell of Clothing Club. Junch was enjoyed courtesy of Whiterose Beef Club.

Ray Speaker To Attend Meeting Here

Through the efforts of the Senior Citizen's Organization a public meeting will be held in the Elks Hall on Monday, May 17th featuring Mr. Ray Speaker the newly appointed Minister of Health and Social Development.

You are urged to attend as it is felt Mr. Speaker will have a message of importance to both the town and the surrounding community.

The Health and Social Development Department Act passed at the just completed session of the legislature permits local autonomy and citizen participation in social services "beyond that presently available in Canada," Mr. Speaker has said.

Water Situation Still Critical

Many local residents are still ignoring the request by Town Council to help conserve the town's water supply.

A serious water situation exists and town authorities are concerned about the possibility of fire hazard while the supply is low.

You are asked to strictly observe watering regulations printed elsewhere in this paper and failure to do so will certainly result in charges being laid for continued abuse of watering hours. Although the notice specifies lawn watering -- it implies all types of watering including gardens, etc.

The situation is serious -- please do your share in conserving water.

ANNUAL MARCH THIS SATURDAY

Drayton Valley's annual Miles for Millions March is scheduled for next Saturday, May 15th with the 25-mile hike leaving the Centennial Arena at 8:00 a.m.

Marchers must register at the arena prior to the march and are also asked to return to the arena and sign out when they either complete the walk or decide to drop out. Free hamburgers, coffee and pop will be available to walkers on their return to the arena.

Prospective walkers have been busy during the past few days obtaining pledges and this is an area of concern for the march committee. Every year many walkers fail to carry through with the collection of pledges. The committee asks that if you obtain pledges please complete the project by collecting the money within a day or so of the march.

This year's march will go back to the original route that went out west and swung around to the Easyford road to Rocky Rapids and then back to Drayton Valley through the coulee.

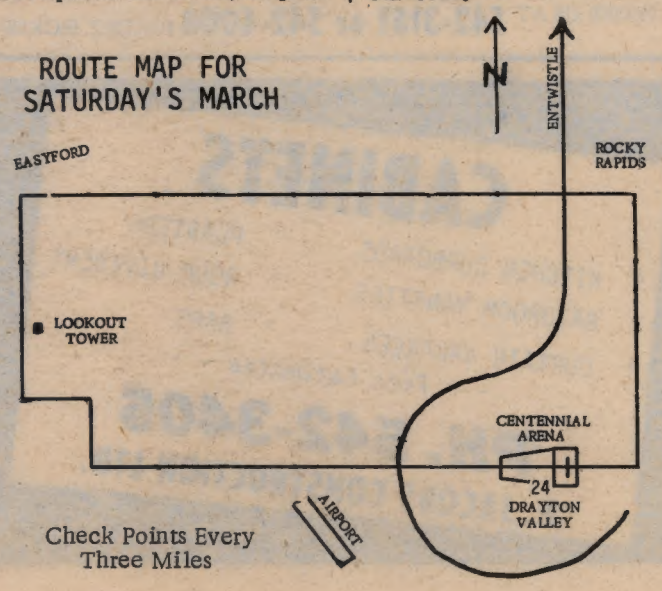
Check points will be located every three miles along the route.

Pick-up cars will also be spotted along the march route.

Cars along the route present a dust problem for marchers and another area of concern for the march committee which seeks the co-operation of the public in refraining from driving the route.

The committee points out that there is no need for parents to drive the route to pick up their children, official pick up cars will be available for this purpose.

Proceeds from the march will be distributed as follows: Purple Pansy Senior Citizens Home Fund, 60 percent; Oxfam of Canada, 20 percent; Indian-Eskimo Association of Alberta, 10 percent; and the Canadian Organization for Devlopment and Peace, 10 pct.



POLICE AREA EXTENDED

An extension of the area policed by the Drayton Valley Detachment of the R.C.M.P. was announced last week.

Effective May 1st the Drayton Valley unit assumed responsibility for the area west of Buck Lake Creek and one mile south of Highway 57.

The area, just across the Saskatchewan River from Drayton Valley, was previously under the jurisdiction of the Breton Detachment.

CADET INSPECTION

Annual inspection of the Drayton Valley Air Cadet Squadron No 733 will be held on Thursday, May 13th at 6:30 p.m. at the Centennial Civic Centre.

The inspection will be followed by a cadet-parents banquet.

SPECIAL PHONE

D. V. Highlights

BY MRS. EDITH DEBY

A warm welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson who have just moved here from Edmonton.

On a recent trip to B. C. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lindskoog called on a number of ex-Drayton Valleyites. At Creston there were "Grandma" Mastre, Mrs. Morin, and Mr. Clint Vickrey. Mrs. Mastre is ninety-five and a half years old and enjoys good health. At Penticton there were the Ralph Oslunds, at Summerland Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ganske, at Westbank the Powers, and in Kelowna the Ernie Whitlams. Mr. and Mrs. Lindskoog have purchased a Trailer and Tent Camp Grounds in Penticton and will be leaving us this fall. We are going to miss you, folks. Be sure to come back often to visit.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. Lawrence Duperron in the loss of a brother. Mr. Edmund Duperron had been at the races on Sunday apparently in good health when he died on the grounds.

It is expected that Mr. and Mrs William Urchyshyn will be returning from Toronto to live in Drayton Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Urchyshyn have already returned. For the past two years they have lived in Edmonton and Fort St. John. While speaking of the Urchyshyns have you heard of Mrs. Bohdan Urchyshyn's potatoes? Many people can brag of their tulips but how many can say that they have potatoes six inches high?

Mr. and Mrs. William Cuthbertson enjoyed a two week holiday in Manitoba. They visited their son and daughter-in-law, the Renwick Cuthbertson's in Winnipeg and their daughter, Miss Helen Cuthbertson in Morden where she is nursing. The Cuthbertsons flew home and are likely to become flying addicts.

Sorry to see that Mrs. Smerchinski is having a few days in hospital.

Out-of-town guests to the Jackson-Van DeCastle wedding included Jim's grandmother, Mrs. Belinda Alton, his aunt, Mrs. James Cameron Fraser and cousin, Miss Linda Fraser, all of Lacombe Also present for the occasion was Mr. Hawkeson, Linda's fiance. Best wishes to the newlyweds.

Unifarm Women Meet at Tomahawk

The Tomahawk women of Unifarm held their meeting at the home of Bonnie Jabs with Olive Case in the Chair.

The meeting opened with roll call with twelve members and four visitors plus Earl Lowe. We wish the visitors a welcome.

The May 1st Bazaar was discussed and Marion Jouan gave a report on the Conference held in Wildwood.

The TB X-rays were talked about. The evening of May 5th was open for people working and not able to attend during the day on May 6th.

The women of Tomahawk are to take lunch to the Unifarm Women's Conference May 5th in Stony Plain.

Marion Jouan then gave a report on the Community Club meeting.

Mr. Earl Lowe held a question and answer program on landscaping, flowers and lawns. He followed this with some very colorful slides on the subject.

A lovely lunch was served by Bonnie and Co-hostess, Jane Zander.

Annual general meeting of the Drayton Valley Golf Club was held in the Curling Club Lounge on May 5th with about 45 persons present.

Executive members of the club for the ensuing year are: Ken Gillis, president; Larry Farkas, treasurer; and Bill DesBrisay, secretary. Directors are Howard Jevne, Dan Bills, Jim Crough, Don Gamble, Dennis Manning, Dave Peter and Dan Davie.

All nine grass greens have been constructed and should be ready to play within a month. At the present time temporary greens are in use.

The structure of the Men's League that was so popular last year was discussed and it is planned to expand the league to 12 teams this season. Each team will have a maximum of eight players with action to get underway on May 18th.

Also discussed was a junior golf program proposed for this year to aid young people in developing golf skills and game etiquette.

Green fees are now in force and memberships are being sold at the course. Organizations wishing to rent the golf course or club house facilities during the present season are asked to contact Bill DesBrisay.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

By Kevin Peterson and Don Sellar (Of the Calgary Herald)

Pre-election gossip and speculation are circulating freely across the province as the Social Credit government keeps its options open on voting dates ranging from June 28th to Spring, 1972.

Premier Harry Strom and Opposition leader Peter Lougheed both put their feet up and relaxed for a few days after the gruelling 52-day Legislature session prorogued, setting off new waves of contradictory and unconfirmable rumors.

The premier dropped the biggest Election Day hint when he told reporters the Social Credit caucus will meet in Edmonton May 20 -- an ominous 39 days before Monday, June 28.

Alberta election campaigns are traditionally 39 days long and elections are usually held on Mondays, so June 28 was instantly transformed into the favorite date for speculators.

More fuel was added to the fire by word from government sources that a "special" cabinet meeting will be held three days before the caucus and that the premier will make his final election decision sometime this week.

The June 28 date is no lead-up cinch, however. The Socreds have called three August elections (1944, 1948 and 1952) and party members who favor the mid-summer polling date think the provincial economy -- and thus the government -- will be stronger then.

The uncertainty is playing havoc with Conservative election strategy. Rumor has it the Tories have twice postponed the television showing of their election movies and are reluctant to make firm bookings for telephone and provincial headquarters space for the campaign until the election date is set.

The Tories are set to go now. Their platform was drafted several months ago, and Mr. Lougheed is now in the process of making minor changes to update the document.

The Opposition's state of advanced readiness even has some of their own supporters worried that the party may be over-prepared and too inflexible to wage a campaign that could peak on Election Day.

Some Socreds plumping for August or September campaigns would like nothing better than to force Mr. Lougheed to wage a campaign with outdated pamphlets and irrelevant issues.

The election will be held this year, however. Most Socreds agree on that point, and the government party's election task force is busy drafting a comprehensive election document.

Meanwhile, billboards touting candidates in both parties are beginning to spring up in the cities and nominations are proceeding at a steady pace, with more than 180 candidates ready to pay their $100 deposits in 75 provincial ridings.

Report From Parliament Hill

By Allen Sulatychy, M.P.

The resignation from the Cabinet of Eric Kierans as Minister of Communications came as a complete surprise to everyone on Parliament Hill.

Long before Kierans was a Minister in the Quebec Cabinet, his views on Canadian economic policy were a matter of interest throughout Canada. When he tried for the Federal Liberal Leadership in 1968, his entry ensured a spirited debate on policy matters.

Kierans has never been one to be silent on economic policy. Rather than accept the silence which membership in the Cabinet imposes on a dissenter, he chose to leave.

While Kierans theories on economic policy often appear perfectly logical, his practical approach to government has not been as readily accepted by the Canadian public. In his former post as Postmaster-General, he antagonized many throughout the country. With the intention of modernizing the post office and taking its operation out of the money-losing category, much of its efficiency was lost.

Under his command the public complained of unusual delays in mail service while at the same time postal rates were raised, box rentals increased and many smaller post offices were closed. However, his rather dismal record as Postmaster-General should not be taken as evidence of the unsoundness of his economic theories.

The points he makes on economic policy are good ones. Unfortunately, they have been misinterpreted in some press reports. Some reporters have said that Kierans was unsatisfied with the present rate of unemployment. In his letter of resignation there is no mention of this in the sense of present unemployment. He is concerned about policies which will create more jobs in the future through tighter control of our resources. In his letter he states: "Canada is fortunate in its resource base and can insist on exports with a higher labour content. Tax concessions that force the pace of our raw material exports or favour the overemployment of capital, which we have to import, at the expense of labour which is in surplus would not be consistent with long-run Canadian growth and employment objectives. If Canada is to be an industrial force in the 1980's, we must be prepared now to husband our resources and to select those areas in which we can be internationally competitive and to manage and invest in the resources, physical and human, that will give us a compelling position."

With this everyone can agree.

The methods by which the goals are achieved is where the difference between various positions occurs. It is probably logical to assume that Kierans resignation comes as a result of a Cabinet decision on tax reform. Perhaps the very restrictive tax policies proposed by Benson's White Paper insofar as resource development is concerned, have been rejected by Cabinet. This may be the reason for Kierans departure. If so, he would favour a position which has been condemned by every responsible leader in Western Canada, without regard to party affiliation. He favours a policy which would ensure that Eastern Canada forever would remain in a position of economic dominance over Western Canada. If this be so, his departure will not be mourned in the West.

Editorial Comment

Emergency Rescue Force Still Required

A catastrophe of the kind that struck St. Jean Vianney last week points out a very real need for a continuing, efficient Emergency Measures Organization. At. St. Jean Vianney a massive mud slide and cave-in swallowed up 35 homes, cars and a bus and took the lives of over thirty persons.

The scene at St. Jean Vianney, about 115 miles north of Quebec City, was one of sheer desolation. Steep walls dropped down into a sea of mud in a hole one-quarter mile long, 700 feet wide and 200 feet deep. Smashed homes lay at the bottom of the hole.

The need for immediate help by trained rescue workers is of paramount importance when a community suffers a great blow of any kind. No community is immune -- the fact that we don't usually suffer to any great extent from nature's whims, is no guarantee of continued safety. Man-made calamities -- fires, air crashes and the like -- could be just as devastating.

In the late fifties and early sixties, when the cold war was considerably warmer, most of us had at least a little knowledge of civil defence. As the international situation eased most of us gave civil defence little thought and we should reassess out thinking in the light of recent world events such as the Indian tidal wave, the California earth quakes and last week's unfortunate mud slide in Quebec.

A small corps of trained rescue workers in every community could be a life-saving investment when the day of emergency arrives.

Plan Summer Safety

As the days grow longer and your plans for spring and summer multiply, increase your chance of season-safe enjoyment. Get in safety shape. Add safety to your plans.

Whether your holiday plans include a trip to the country to freshen up you summer home or a jaunt to your favorite beach for your first dip of the year, remember to include safety in your plans.

If your family enjoys boating, before your first outing, shape up your boat with a spring clean up. Take winter rust off equipment, inspect docking facilities, check the condition of your government-approved life jackets. Most importantly, know and practice water safety.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
The Western Review.
Dear Sir:

In regards to your "Editorial Comment" on "Clean-up Time Again" in the May 4th Review, asking our co-operation to help make the town and county more attractive places to live and more impressive to the visitors who will soon be vacationing across the country. I would like to add a note as to proposed legislation to curb pollution by dogs. The law hopefully to be passed in New York, will require owners to clean up droppings after their dogs, using sealed containers. Would not such a law be good for this town?

C. Erickson

Editor
The Western Review
Dear Sir:

On behalf of Mrs. Telford and myself I would like to thank each one of the 38 canvassers who so generously took of their time and effort to canvass in the town and surrounding area of Drayton Valley. Also to Mr. Smith of the Western Review for coverage during the campaign.

To each householder and business manager, who so generously donated to this most worthwhile project, I would like to extend a most sincere thank you for helping us realize the amount of $1,147.30.

It is most rewarding to see what can really be accomplished when united in any project to further the work or research and necessary requirements needed to fight the dreaded disease of cancer and be able to prove that "CANCER CAN BE BEATEN."

Yours truly,
Mrs. Mavis Waddell

The Editor,
The Western Review,
Dear Sir:

Recently, I wrote a letter to our local Editor about our dog problem.

In the same paper as my letter appeared, our Editor, who is also a member of our Town Council wrote an Editorial about dog regulations in this town.

I am with complete agreement with our Editor.

The only thing we have to do as tax payers is, to see that our Council enforces this by-law.

Since my dog was picked-up, I've been driving around town every day spoting offending dogs. On any given day, ten to fifteen dogs could be picked-up.

Oh-where-oh-where have our Dog Catchers gone?

For further information, please apply at Town Office or any member of the Council.

THE TOWN OF DRAYTON VALLEY

EMERGENCY NOTICE

For some time your communal water system has been hard put to supply the demands of the town. Four additional wells have been drilled in the past two years to remedy the situation but each new hole has only substantiated what your Council has reluctantly been forced to accept -- the water supply from water wells is just not adequate. A water study was authorized by Council in the autumn of 1970, and the results were made available in February of this year. Since that time exploratory measures have been undertaken to prove out the findings of the study. Whilst these programs have been going on, the final two wells, mentioned above, were drilled and each have proven a disappointment. At this stage it is hard to say how soon the water system will be connected up to a water source that will provide adequately for all of our wants -- we can only point out that the recommendations contained in the water study are being carried out - plus.

In the meantime your water works department earnestly solicits your co-operation in maintaining a balance between supply and demand by curtailing the use of water throughout the town. They ask therefore that you do your part and follow out the rationing program directive below, effective immediately: ly:

LAWN WATERING HOURS

PERMITTED IN THE TOWN OF DRAYTON VALLEY

NORTH SIDE OF 50th AVENUE

Mondays - Wednesdays - Fridays

Water Between 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. ONLY

SOUTH SIDE OF 50th AVENUE

Tuesdays - Thursdays - Saturdays

Water Between 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. ONLY

ALL THE TOWN - SUNDAYS

Water Between 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. ONLY

Rationing of water may be instituted by a Municipal Corporation when the necessity of same becomes apparent. Our water supply situation is now such that it is deemed necessary to institute the program of rationing as outlined above. Anyone contravening this rationing directive will be liable to prosecution.

The Mayor and Council are confident that the water users in Drayton Valley will react favorably to this emergency measure and co-operate completely.

The Town of Drayton Valley,
29, April 1971

W. G. JOHANNESON,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Nominations Now Open for Master Farm Family Awards

Agriculture Minister, H.A. Ruste, last week announced that nominations are open for the 1971 Alberta Master Farm Family Awards. Nomination forms and detailed information are available from any of the department of agriculture district extension offices.

The Alberta Master Farm Family program has operated continuously since 1949. A few modifications have been made this year in the objectives, eligibility nomination and judging procedures. This has been done in consultation with interested individuals and groups to up-date the program and increase its effectiveness.

The Master Farm Family Award is the highest honor the department of agriculture can bestow on an Alberta family. To be a meaningful award the standards of selection used demand a balance of excellence in the home, on the farm, in the community and in the management of the business. The program has been designed to honor farm families who have achieved notable success in farming, homemaking and citizenship.

Mr. Ruste referred to the continuing need of providing an example of farm and family progress and successful farm life. The Master Farm Family program emphasizes the advantages of farming as a vocation and draws attention to the meaningfulness and dignity of farm life.

Changes instituted this year include; reduction from 20 years to 10 years on the present farm to be eligible; clarification of the eligibility of families operating under various farm business agreements; increased emphasis on labor management and how a family started farming and assessment of achievements due essentially to their own farming efforts.

The new Alberta department of agriculture regions will be used as a basis of recommendation for five provincial awards. More complete details and guidelines have been provided for the use of nominating committees, nominees and those concerned.

Nomination for the Master Farm Family Award must be proposed and signed by at least three neighbors, accepted by the nominated family and filed with the resident district agriculturist or district home economist by July 1, 1971.

During the summer families nominated for the award will be assessed by a district committee. A further selection will be made by a regional committee as only one family will be named from a region. A provincial committee with broad agricultural representation, will review and confirm the recommendations.

The Master Farm Family Award includes an engraved plaque, a gate sign and $1,000 in cash.

Datsun 1600 sedan is the next best thing to the Sports Car of the Year.

Datsun 240-Z was named "Sports Car of the Year" by Road Test magazine.

It's sleek, powerful, brilliantly engineered . . . and a steal at around $4,260*.

But if you can't fit your family or your budget into a 240-Z, get the next best thing—Datsun 1600.

At around $2,235* it doesn't give you everything you get on a 240-Z. But you get the things that matter. Like a rally-proven overhead cam engine. It's more efficient than an ordinary engine, which means it's more economical.

And front disc brakes. They're the best, and no one will tell you otherwise.

And independent rear suspension. You get better roadholding, better traction, and a safer, more comfortable ride.

As a high performance sports car, Datsun 240-Z carries all these features as standard equipment.

So does Datsun 1600.

But it's the only economy car that does.

Hints for Walkers

Proper care of the feet will help to keep away blisters, sores and callouses.

Before you start, bathe them well in soap and water, dry thoroughly and dust with foot powder.

Socks and shoes: Wear two pairs of socks, one of light wool next to the feet, one outer pair of heavier wool. No darns or wrinkles. Shoes should be leather, laced, with good thick soles. Ample room for the toes; a well-fitting heel. Break them in before you start!

Carry a tin of foot powder and additional socks and shoes.

If feet become tender or swollen, bathe (if possible) in warm salt water. Dry thoroughly, dust with powder, put on clean socks. Rest for a while with feet up before going on.

Blisters: When they appear stop at a first-aid post. If you discover them when you get home wash carefully and apply protective sterile bandage. Relieve the pressure by using a hollow-centred pad.

Don't break the blister unless it's about to rupture. In that case paint a mild antiseptic on it and the surrounding skin and puncture close to the edge with a sterile needle. Press gently to force the liquid out. Don't remove loose skin. Apply a protective sterile dressing.

Where skin has been broken and raw flesh is exposed, wash foot well, apply mild antiseptic cream and cover with sterile dressing. If inflammation develops, see your doctor.

Sun: Too much can be harmful. Don't overexpose areas of the body not accustomed to the sun. A spring walk is not the time to start your summer tan. Mild suntan lotions are useful. Don't use oily substances; they increase the degree of burn. If burned, when you get out of the sun apply cold cream, olive oil, petroleum jelly or cool wet compresses. If a burn is serious see your doctor without delay.

Heat exhaustion: Danger signals are headache, cramps, dizziness, or breaking out in a cold sweat. Get off the road into a cool shady place; drink a tumbler of cool salted water. Don't move off again until you feel fully recovered.

Rest: Have no hesitation about resting along the way. Stop when you reach your limit of comfortable endurance.

Are you seeding rape this year? If you are, then you will likely be using fertilizer on it. If fertilizer is going to be used, you will likely get the best return using it on rape.

Have you taken a soil test on the area you are seeding rape on, or are you using the general fertilizer recommendations? General fertilizer recommendations for rape are similar to those for cereals except that more nitrogen is recommended on stubble land. Not more than 10 pounds of nitrogen should be placed with the seed. Additional nitrogen should be broadcast to avoid seed injury The general recommendations say we should be looking at 20 pounds of P2O5 fallow; on stubble you should be using up to 30 pounds of nitrogen broadcast and 20 pounds of P2O5. We have records of fields that have been soil sampled on which fellows were going to grow rape.

Assume if these fellows had not soil tested, they would have used the general recommendations - they would have been wrong 49% of the time. In other words if you don't soil test you will not be applying the right amount of fertilizer half the time. You will be applying more than is required. This costs money! Or you may be applying less than is required and lose in that you get a reduced yield.

Fertilizing rape is important, but equally important is applying the right amount of fertilizer.

UNIFARM Seeks Further Amendments to Bill-176

Unifarm is seeking further amendments to Bill C-176, primarily to exclude cattle and hogs from the legislation, but it still wants the Bill passed immediately for the benefit of other segments of the agriculture industry.

In a statement issued following a special weekend meeting of the organization's provincial executive, Unifarm president Dobson Lea said he had informed Agriculture Minister Bud Olson of the "grave reservations expressed during the past week by our cattle and hog producing members." Mr. Olson has been asked by Unifarm to exclude cattle, calves, beef and veal, and hogs and pork.

Appearing before the Commons Agriculture Committee earlier this year, Unifarm stated it did not wish to make an issue of the fact that one or more of its member organizations wished to be excluded from the legislation. More recently Mr. Lea questioned the right of those who wished to be excluded to try to delay the Bill "to the detriment of those who require it now."

The Unifarm president said he has urged Mr. Olson to exclude cattle and hogs from the legislation, and to make specific provision for inclusion at a later date if a majority of producers of a commodity request it.

Unifarm has also asked for definite provision for review and the dissolution of any agency which might be set up under the Act, if the majority of producers of the commodity served by the agency so declare through a plebiscite.

Buck Lake Couple Mark Anniversary

A lovely wedding anniversary reception was held at the Buck Lake Recreation Centre, at 6:00 p.m. Saturday, April 10th with 130 guests attending.

Henry and Lena Brown were married in Lacombe April 11, 1925. Lena's sister Josie (Mrs. Albert Wiley) was her Matron of Honor at that time.

Those at the head table were the Guests of Honor, Henry and Lena, their son Norman and his wife Verna, Josie (Lena's sister) and Jack and Elsie Parker. Jack was the Master of Ceremonies.

The table was beautifully arranged, centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, which was made and decorated by Mrs. Isabel Willows of Pendryl.

After the bride and groom had and displayed the many beautiful and useful gifts, the guests enjoyed an evening of dancing to the music of the Oiltones.

Henry and Lena received a telegram of congratulations from his nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, of Smithers B.C.

The guest travelling the furthest was from Georgia, U.S.A. 4,000 miles. Brand Inspection Act Passed by Legislature

The Livestock Brand Inspection Act was passed by the Alberta Legislature last week to provide the department of agriculture with a means of obtaining records of all branded cattle and horses that are sold, slaughtered or shipped out of the province. It comes into force on September 1, 1971 and will replace the Stock Inspection Act which is no longer adequate to deal with Alberta's rapidly expanding cattle industry.

The new act states that anybody moving cattle or horses by truck, or on foot, to a community pasture, forest reserve, feedlot or any type of market must provide his brand inspector with a manifest, describing the animals. A manifest is a document similar to a bill of lading, presently being used by public service vehicles. The information contained in the manifest will be used by the department of agriculture in their computerized record keeping system, designed to facilitate the immediate retrieval of brand and sale data. These manifests will be supplied, free of charge, to all livestock producers by the department.

The Livestock Brand Inspection Act also states that all cattle and horses being shipped out of the province must have their brands read before they are loaded. This provision will enable the department to keep a record of animals that have been exported, and is designed to protect Alberta farmers and ranchers against theft. Previously, both cattle and horses could be shipped to, or through, Winnipeg without any brand inspection before they left.

Any cattle moved from a farm or ranch to a custom feedlot must now have their brands inspected upon their arrival at the feedlot. Implementation of this provision was made necessary by the large number of cattle which now go directly to a commercial feedlot without passing through a market.

Another provision of the new act make it mandatory for anyone who has stray cattle or horses on his premises to notify the brand owner, or the brand inspector, or to impound the animals within a seven day period. A person who fails to comply with this provision of the act is subject to a fine upon conviction. Under the pound laws in this province it is not compulsory to impound a stray animal.

The present act also states that anybody who buys or sells cattle or horses must do so under his own name. There has been an increasing number of people in recent years selling livestock under a fictitious name. Since all sales from now on will be recorded by the department of agriculture's computer retrieval program, it is essential that correct names be used.

The new act states that anybody butchering cattle or horses for resale must have a building in which to do the slaughtering before he is eligible for a license. This provision is intended to ensure that the animals are killed in one central location to facilitate future inspection of animals at slaughtering establishments. Previously, they could be killed on the premises of the vendor.

Livestockmen who sell cattle or horses that are branded with brands that are not their own registered brand must now make sure that the brand is plainly visible to the inspector prior to shipment. This provision is intended to help speed up the brand inspection service as the animals go from one market to another. Failure to comply with this provision will result in a double inspection fee.

BUCK LAKE NEWS

(Held over from last week)

Visitors at Joe and Margaret Roberts at the weekend were her brother Harold and his wife Margaret Mills. Margaret Roberts went back to Calgary with them for a lengthy visit.

Delta Projects have moved out from the job at Delhi Gas Plant. A lot of big trailers have been going by.

Mrs. Ede Drader met her sister Mrs. Todd, of Edmonton at the bus in Winfield last Thursday evening. Mrs. Todd spent the weekend with Fred and Ede. Doctor Todd of Edmonton, (Ede's nephew) spent a few days with them recently.

Wilf and Goldie Anderson spent a couple of days at Donalda visiting with Mrs. Anna Bergstrom and family.

Don't forget this week and next is "Clean-Up" time in our area. So let's get out our rakes and paint brushes and brighten up our surroundings.

Get well wishes are going out to Mrs. Lynda Kripta, who had a minor operation, and spent some time in Drayton Valley Hospital.

Happy birthday greetings to Harry Foster on May 10th. Hope you are feeling better now, and will be out of hospital soon.

Mrs. Peter (Anne Fontaine's Mother) is spending some time at the Mel Fontaine residence, helping out.

Quite a few farmers in this area have been unfortunately losing new calves due to diseases.

Mr. H. Odegaard of Parkside, Saskatchewan has returned home to attend to farm affairs there.

Easter holiday visitors at Pete and Kathleen Kiss were Ruth Kiss and the children, and son Laurie.

Larry and Priscilla Stewart were in Wetaskiwin on business Monday as were Jim and George Foster, and Wes and Betty Bouck.

Approximately four inches of snow fell on Thursday, April 29, about half way between Buck Lake and Rocky Mountain House. It was all gone by late afternoon, leaving the roads rather wet and muddy.

Pete Kiss and his brother Coleman motored to Lethbridge after the Easter vacation, and spent a week visiting with relatives there. Barley was being seeded in that area at the time.

Kathleen Kiss, Joe and Dolores Laczo all travelled to Lethbridge Friday, April 30, for several days to visit relatives there.

Miss Kathie Bouck was an overnight guest at the home of Miss Darlene Matthews of Norbuck, Wednesday evening.

George and Cora Fontaine motored to the Lakeview Pavillion near Edmonton, Friday, April 30 where George was entered in the Old Time Fiddlers Contest along with twenty-two other contestants. Sorry that George was unable to bring home a trophy. The Golden Fiddle went to a man from Prince George, B. C. A huge crowd attended the event, sponsored by Hires Root Beer Co. and Curley Gurlock of C.F.C.W. (Radio) in Camrose.

Correction for last week - Mrs. Helen Trusett had her eighteenth birthday party on April 16th, not her tenth.

George Fontaine is presently sawing lumber at Battle Lake for the Midtahl Hereford Ranch there.

Make wisdom your provision for the journey from youth to old age, for it is a more certain suport than all other possessions.

Weekly Livestock Report

The Edmonton weekly livestock report for the week ending May 8, 1971 provided by the Livestock Division, Canada Department of Agriculture

SALES	CATTLE & CALVES	CATTLE	CALVES	HOGS	SHEEP
This week (est.)	6250	5000	1250	4000	100

Same week (1970)	4786	3851	935	3303	23

SUMMARY

This week's receipts of cattle and calves were down considerably as spring cultiviation and seeding operations are in full swing throughout the area. Offerings continue to be approximately 75% replacements with butcher cows comprising the bulk of the slaughter classes. Trade was only moderate under a slacking demand for slaughter steers and heifers which sold 50 -75 lower for the week. Butcher cows were uneven to 50 higher. Bulls steady. Replacement classes generally steady.

SLAUGHTER CATTLE AND CALVES

Slaughter steers and heifers opened the week under pressure a full 50 lower and sold throughout the week to a selective trade as to weight and quality. Light and heavier kinds sold under discounts of 50 - 100. Medium quality slaughter steers continue slow at lower prices. There were a few packages of choice wt. steers topping 32.20 in closing sales. Choice butcher heifers were leveling off at a top of 30 as the week closed. Butcher cows opened steady at a practical top of 21 but sold 50 lower Tuesday. Demand firmed up at mid-week with good and medium kinds strengthened to close a full 50 higher with the odd sale over 21½ for good kinds. Bulls firm at fully steady prices. Veal calves scarce at steady prices. Butcher calves barely steady to a limited demand. The majority of fleshy butcher weight calves moving out as stockers.

REPLACEMENT CATTLE AND CALVES

There was little change in prices this week for replacement classes. Fleshy kinds continue slow while good green stockers and feeders were fully steady. Light weight stockers 250 and under were not as active with prices 5 - 10¢ lower in spots.

SHIPMENTS

Last week's shipments off the Edmonton Public Stockyards were East - Nil, West to B.C. - 60 slaughter. Export - 31 slaughter. Feeders to Southern Alberta areas - 765.

Legislature Revises Livestock Diseases Act

The Livestock Diseases Act, passed recently by the Alberta Legislature, is an updating, or revision, of the previous act. It is designed to control infectious and communicable diseases in livestock and to prevent the transmission of certain livestock diseases to human beings.

Completion of the province's brucellosis control program, and the transfer of subsequent responsibility for control of these diseases to federal authorities, is the main reason for the Livestock Diseases Act being rewritten.

Those provisions in the old act that pertained to brucellosis control, under the brucellosis restricted areas program, can now be applied to any infectious disease that is of economic significance to the livestock industry, and which can be controlled by practical measures. The minister of agriculture can implement such a program if at least two-thirds of the livestock producers in the district are in favor.

Another provision in the new act states that all positively diagnosed cases of a "listed" disease must be reported to the Alberta veterinary services division. A list of these diseases will be available shortly from that division. It contains diseases of economic importance which are usually introduced to the premises by additions to livestock herds, and those diseases which can be transmitted from animals to human beings The provincial "listed" diseases do not replace the federal health of animals "named" diseases, but are in addition to them. When the provincial list has been prepared, it will be compulsory for a person selling an animal for breeding purposes which he knows has one of the "listed" diseases to inform the purchaser of this fact.

The new act also provides for the continuation of programs and policies that were in force under the old act. These include veterinary inspection at public auction markets, regulations governing the retail sale of certain livestock medicines and vaccines, the humane slaughter of animals, the disposal of dead animals and the control of communicable diseases in general.

4-H Tractor Club Plans Achievement Day

A special meeting of the 16A 4-H Tractor Club was held on April 28 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Bruner of Evansburg. Mr. Keast, the High School Principal, attended this meeting for the benefit of the high school students who took the Tractor Club as a five credit course. We would like to thank him for doing so.

Mr. Andrews, the 4-H Regional Specialist has judges for Achievement Day. The demonstrations to be given on that day are going to be chosen by each family member. Tractor books are to be in as soon as possible, so the leaders and judges will have time to check them. All are welcome to attend the acheivement day on May 15th starting at 1:00 p.m. Free coffee will be served and other refreshments sold.

A bake sale is planned in Wildwood on May 22nd. A meeting has been called for May 16 to discuss this and our year end picnic.

Mr. Stephens, from Evansburg, is to pick up the tractor from Camp He-Ho-Ha for the club.

After the meeting we practised our skit for the rally and a delicious lunch was served after our practise.

Clippers Cap Successful Season with Easter Tourney

The Drayton Valley Clippers capped a very busy season consisting of 39 games, over the Easter week with participation in a Midget Tournament at Westlock. The Clippers won an abbreviated game 3-2 over Gold Bar of Edmonton when the referees called the game at 15:35 of the third period when Gold Bar was assessed misconduct and game misconduct penalties.

The next Clipper foe was a renewed rivalry with Westlock Falcones. This time it was the Clippers turn to win, and in sudden death overtime Captain Gordon Riech converted a goal mouth pass from Mark Hutton to beat the Westlock goalie clearly.

Two hours later the Clippers were back on the ice against High Prairie who received a bye into the final after beating Fort Saskatchewan Saturday night. The Clippers played well for two periods but after a mild concussion sustained by their leader in the tournament, Gordon Riech, the legs gave in and the score ended 6-2 for High Prairie.

Larry Wall and Lindsay Machan were the only Clippers able to dent the twine behind a sharp High Prairie goalie.

This ended a wonderful year for the boys winning the Highway 16 West Midget Hockey League Championship and playing very well in a Camrose Midget "A" Tournament over Christmas holidays and the Midget "B" Tournament at Westlock. Throug the year they won 24, lost 8 and tied 7. Jim Tucker won the "Midget Vezina Trophy for the Highway 16 West Midget Hockey League with a 2:00 goals against.

The Clipper Hockey Team would like to extend their thanks to Mr. W. W. Rose for sponsorship of the team this year and to Mr. Jack Coppens, Mr. Alvin Riech and Mr. Peter Vander-Wiede of Getzingers Store who provided pop (a la champaigne) during the course of the season. Also thanks to all parents who drove cars this year.

Farm Families To be Honored At City K-Days

Thirty two Alberta farm families, representing many districts in the northern part of the province, will be honored by the Edmonton Exhibition Association during Klondike Days, 1971.

Under the Farm Family Awards program instituted three years ago, families so honored are selected by local committees on the basis of their contributions to agriculture and their communities. Brought to Edmonton under sponsorship of local Chambers of Commerce and Boards of Trade, the families are guests of the Exhibition Association while in the city. They are honored at a luncheon, meet and Lieutenant-Governor, the Premier and the Mayor, and enjoy all the color and thrills of the Exposition on "Country Day', this year July 26.

Selection of this year's winning families already has begun under direction of Exhibition Association's Alberta Farm Family Award Committee headed by Allan Shenfield. Selection at the local level is in the hands of individual Chambers of Commerce, who in turn forward their choices to area co-ordinating committees. The co-ordinating groups, in co-operation with district agriculturalists, district home economists and others, make final selections in each designated area.

FARM IMPLEMENT ACT REVISED

The Farm Implement Act was revised recently by the Alberta Legislature to make its implementation more effective.

Under the revised act an implement dealer must now provide a suitable substitute implement, within a reasonable time, to a purchaser who is not satisfied with the one he bought. The purchaser is entitled to use the substitute implement until his own can be made to perform satisfactorily. If satisfactory performance is not possible, the purchaser may then request the dealer to terminate the sale agreement and return any equity the purchaser may have in the equipment.

The revised act also provides for the licensing and bonding of farm machinery dealers. This amendment is designed to give farmers some assurance of the financial responsibility of such dealers. Financial responsibility is important in the event of a dispute involving the return of an unsatisfactory piece of equipment.

While details of the licensing requirements have not yet been worked out, it is expected that regulations will be drawn up that will provide for certain minimum standards of service on the part of dealers.

Another amendment states that a farm equipment supplier must, upon the termination of a vendor-dealer agreement, buy back from the dealer all unused equipment and parts. This provision should stabilize implement dealerships and thereby, provide better service to the public. It is retroactive to October 1, 1970.

A further clause in the act requires implement dealers to state on their sale agreement slips the serial number (when there is one) of the machine or implement sold. This amendment is intended to protect both the dealer and the farmer in the event of a subsequent complaint.

Finally, every sale agreement must now be recorded in writing. The details of the sale can then be confirmed if a controversy should arise at a later date.

The original Farm Implement Act was passed in 1967 to compel dealers to provide a minimum standard of service for the implements they sold, and to ensure that they supply repair parts for the equipment within a reasonable time as well as for a period of at least 10 years after the date of manufacture. The original act also made it mandatory for every piece of new farm equipment to have a warranty and required the manufacturers to honor the warranty.

Insulator Shooting Big Problem for Calgary Power

If it isn't snowstorms creating problems for Calgary Power in the winter, it's kites and damaged insulators in the springtime. They both spell trouble to maintenance crews -- and inconvenience to the consumer.

Henry Bradley, Supervisor of Safety and Health for Calgary Power, says the maintenance bill each year for repairing insulators (damaged by so-called marksmen) runs into thousands of dollars. Since most of the company's service area is rural, kites don't pose as much of a problem, but nevertheless they are a definite hazard to both the system and the kite flyer.

"Kites can bring two lines together, causing them to short out or burn down. Main circuits can be easily tripped, and other equipment burned out, all because some youngster let caution follow the kite to the wind," says Mr. Bradley.

He urges parents to impress upon youngsters the dangers of flying kites near power lines, and warned that if kites do get tangled on the lines, there should be no attempt at getting them off.

"Our district staff will gladly do that," says Mr. Bradley. "Line maintenance is their business, and they know how to do it safely. A call to the nearest Calgary Power office is all that is required."

Calgary Power's Safety Supervisor has sterner words for "Marksmen" who shoot at insulators. He says: "The act of shooting insulators is punishable by law under the criminal code with provisions for a heavy fine."

"Every year lines are put out of service because insulators are shot off poles. This causes the service to short out."

He cited two examples that demonstrates the seriousness of the offense.

Last year service to the major portion of southern Alberta was severed for hours, all because an insulator was shot off a pole on Highway #3 between Fort Macleod and Blairmore. At that time, the alternate service line was under repair, so when the circuit shorted there was no other route through which to restore service.

As well, in late November, a temporary "brown out" occurred in the city of Calgary, because a sharpshooter was testing his prowess with a rifle. He methodically drew a bead on the insulators of the overhead power lines and steel towers and kept firing until all three lines were out of commission.

Fortunately, the alternate supply route was able to handle the load until the 39 insulators were replaced.

"But it's not just the cost of repairing damage," says Mr. Bradley. "Consider the possibilities if a main line was 'shot'. People would be trapped in elevators, hospital staff would be scrambling to switch to emergency standby power, lives could be lost and people using iron lungs placed in a precarious position."

Cryoprecipitate -- This remarkable substance is obtained from fresh blood plasma and is rich in clotting factors which enable, a Haemophiliac to lead a more normal life, free from worries of life-threatening haemorrhages.

A pig halter that can be fitted in about two minutes to any sow, boar or gilt prevents them from savaging each other, and yet allows them to eat and drink normally, states its British maker Pigcraft, 88 High Street, Broadway, Worchestershire.
